The Board discussed the July 7, 2020 and July 15, 2020 Closed Session Minutes. City Clerk Terry Hobgood and City Attorney T.C. Morphis had recommended partially unsealing the July 7, 2020 Minutes, and keeping the July 15, 2020 Minutes permanently sealed. Hobgood and Morphis answered questions about the City's standard practice of leaving personnel related closed session minutes sealed to protect employee privacy as most personnel records are not considered public records in North Carolina. The Board concurred with the staff recommendation.

Commissioner Kicinski moved to leave closed session at 10:00 p.m. The motion was approved by roll call vote 5-0.
