Girl Scout Week Proclamation

- Whereas: Girl Scouts is recognized as a national leader in providing the best leadership development experience in the world for girls; and
- Whereas: March 12th, 2023 marks the 111th anniversary of Girl Scouts of the USA, founded by Juliette Gordon Low in 1912 in Savannah, Georgia. In the 111 years since founding, Girl Scouts has reached close to 10 million girls and adults in 150 countries – many in your own community; and
- Whereas: Girl Scouting takes an active role in increasing girls' awareness of the opportunities available to them today in science, technology, engineering, math and the arts as well as other fields that can expand their horizons; and, in this moment of suffering in our nation, Girl Scouts commits to taking action to support all girls, their families, and their communities; and
- Whereas: Girl Scouting is continuing a legacy of creating gender balanced leadership in the United States and the world in its second century of service to girls by developing their leadership potential through activities that enable them to discover their values, skills, and the world around them, connecting with others in a multicultural environment and by providing girls with the tools to become leaders dedicated to making this country and the world a better place; and
- Now Therefore: I, Robert V. Wheeler, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Creedmoor, North Carolina, do hereby applaud the commitment Girl Scouting has made to support the life and leadership development of girls and proudly proclaim the week of March 12-18, 2023 as Girl Scout Week.

On this 7th day of March 2023.

Robert V. Wheeler, Mayor

Barbara Rouse, City Clerk
